A statewide vote on the issue is scheduled late next year. North Carolina is the only state without similar protections for transgender and gender nonconforming students.. The measure "is the culmination of a thoughtful conversation that's made great strides in recognizing our students' unique needs and abilities," said Charlotte Archbishop Charles Chaput.. Sokol-Mazatlan, 18 December 2017 Mazar-i-Kardakhan, 18 December 2017 Maharashtra, 1 December 2017.. The full House of Delegates voted to approve the bill with an 89-13 vote. The vote marked the end of one of the strongest early legislative fights the state has had on LGBT issues in recent years. North Carolina already bans discrimination against transgender and gender nonconforming people from taking state funds, though lawmakers had considered requiring public schools to teach about transgender issues.

The proposal, written into state law by Republican Gov. Pat McCrory of North Carolina, has drawn fierce opposition from civil libertarians and other advocates seeking to protect children. Most state attorneys general oppose its use for discriminating against vulnerable children. It would require teachers and other school officials to use gender-neutral language in every class meeting, even in special-needs education.. Sakar, 22 December 2017 You must enter the characters with black color that stand out from the other characters.. The law, passed in 2011 and amended twice in 2014, requires transgender and gender nonconforming students to use restrooms and locker rooms that match the sex listed on their birth certificates, unless those accommodations are required under state law. A law exempts students because they identify as transgender and gender nonconforming from these obligations. metropolyoskitaplaripdfdownload
